

Exploration

2009

Friday, November 13 - Sunday, November 15
Dallas, Texas

What is Exploration 2009?

A three-day event to help high school seniors and young adults up to age 24 hear, discern, and respond to God's call to ordained ministry as deacon or elder in The United Methodist Church.

Who should attend?

If you are considering that God might be calling you to ordained ministry, want to find out more about United Methodist seminaries, or want to learn more about different types of ordained ministry and ways to serve, this event is for you.

What will I do at Exploration?

- Attend worship and hear from a variety of speakers about God's call.
- Learn about the 13 United Methodist Seminaries and talk with admissions staff from each school.
- Find out about scholarships that are available and specialized areas of study at each institution.
- Attend in depth workshops that will address your specific questions about ordained ministry.
- Talk with others from around the country who are considering God's call in their lives.

How much does it cost?

The registration fee of $150 includes a two night stay at Sheraton Dallas Hotel, meals and program fees. You will also need to pay for your transportation.

Scholarships and Financial Help

Registration scholarships are available. Check the Web site for details and an application. Check with your local church, campus ministry or annual conference to see if they can help pay for your registration or transportation.

When can I register?

Anytime between March 2 and September 30, 2009.
Questions? Check out www.gbhem.org/exploration.

Register online at www.gbhem.org/exploration after March 2

If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit (Galatians 5:25, NRSV)