

IMMIGRATION AND FAITH

Justice For Our Neighbors offers the symposium free of charge with the purpose of examining the issue of immigration from a faith perspective and providing an opportunity to dialogue about the church's response.

DATE: Saturday, November 7th, 2009

TIME: 9 AM–noon (registration at 8:30)

PLACE: Acton United Methodist Church
3433 Fall Creek Hwy
Granbury, TX 76049

Keynote speaker Attorney Mary Beth Garcia will present “Immigration 101,” a detailed overview of our current immigration laws. Other workshops will include:

- Biblical Reflections—Welcoming the sojourner
- Why Enrique Journeys—The social and economic contexts of unauthorized immigration
- Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors—Congregations in ministry among immigrants
- Making Our Voices Heard—Basic principles of advocacy

For more information or to register for “Immigration and Faith,” contact:

Amy Spaur
amyspaur@hotmail.com
817-534-3293