Mobilizing for Immigration Reform in Arkansas, September 11-13

Dear North Texas Conference Member,

I want to encourage you to register today for the Welcoming the Sojourner Conference in Conway, Arkansas September 11-13, 2008. This is a crucial event that will educate, challenge, and help organize United Methodists to advocate for comprehensive immigration reform for next year's Congress.

It is apparent that Congress will not do what is needed to repair the broken U.S. immigration system by legislating a path to citizenship to all undocumented immigrants, protect the rights of all workers, reunify families separated by migration, and end these inhumane raids. So, ensuring that Congress takes the necessary steps to pass humane immigration reform is up to us – it is up to you!

I urge you to attend this important conference and to encourage others in your church and community to attend as well. It is time we come together and coordinate our efforts and ensure that humane and compassionate legislation is passed next year.
