

Challenges in Treatment and Care at Life's End

Tuesday, March 9, 2010

6:00 p.m. Reception

7:00 p.m. Lecture

Location:

The Point, Center for Arts and Education on the Campus of C. C. Young 4847 W. Lawther Dr.

Dallas, TX 75214

Complimentary event

Seating is limited

Please register today

(214) 841-2834 or

ccy@ccyoung.org

Visit www.ccyoung.org to learn more about the next lecture in the Body, Mind & Spirit Series:

Wednesday, June 23

Wellness is more than absence of disease or loss: A young Dallas woman shares her triumph over a near-death experience

Sponsorships are available for this event and future lectures.

Please call 214-841-2903 for details.

Tuesday, March 9, 2010

The Complimentary Body, Mind & Spirit Lecture Series Continues

Lecture presented by Robert L. Fine, M.D., F.A.C.P., Director, Office of Clinical Ethics and Palliative Care
Baylor Health Care System

Please join us for our fourth lecture in C. C. Young's Body, Mind & Spirit lecture series. Robert L. Fine, M.D., F.A.C.P., Director, Office of Clinical Ethics and Palliative Care of the Baylor Health Care System, will present the lecture on Tuesday, March 9, 2010.

Dr. Fine's last name is not a misnomer. He is an outstanding physician who not only is direct and kind, but:

Improves planning for life's end

Assists in analyzing the right time to let go of medical technology

Addresses the possibility of a sweeping change in attitude by accepting death as a spiritual experience

Human condition tells us to run away at the end of life. However, there are alternative paths for consideration. Experts in the palliative care field:

Assist patients and families in exploring options

Offer planning tools to overcome challenges

Bring healing and focus on comfort

Meet goals and wishes of the patient